ALEXANDER BROWN, of the Fork of
State, is hereby announced as a candidate
County Commissioner by MANY FRIENDS.

FOR SHERIFF.
Many friends of Morris Higgs Esq., the present Sheriff, assistance him as a candidate for re-election.
FRIENDS AND VOTERS.

TEAR TICKET.—In our last issue we presented a ticket for the municipal election of the County. Several gentlemen have censured us pretty severely because it appeared at the head of our editorial columns. Suffice it to say that neither of the conductors of this journal knew anything of the slate in question until it was handed in for publication. We neither gave it an editorial or any other kind of endorsement. This journal will support the regular nominees of the Republican party and no others.

Arriving Bankrupts.—There will be an immense influx at Rowe's bridge today. The following persons are on the Committee of Arrangements: V. D. Johnson, Sam'l May, Charles Dingle, Edward Whitfield, John Meyer, Aaron Lewis, Geo. Bohrer, C. H. Greene, Tom Smith, Elliott Carter, Allen Phillips, Wm. R. Meyers, Jeff. Lloyd and others.

The following Circular letter has been received by County Chairman Geo. Collier, Esq., to the voters of the various precincts in this County. We trust that our friends will see to it that the best men are selected to represent them in the Convention.

OFFICE OF CHAIRMAN COUNTY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE UNION REPUBLICAN PARTY.

OF THE COUNTY S. C.
 July 23, 1872.
 To the voters of various Precincts:
 In accordance with instructions from the Executive Committee National Unionist Party, State of South Carolina,
 You will assemble at your usual place of meeting on the 10th day of August, and Elect the said number of electors in the last Nominating —Jane Williams was sent to jail on Saturday last for assault and battery.

—There will be some lively political sparring at Howe's Bridge to day.

—E. Baynard Sanbrook, Esq., slapped John G. Mackey's face the other day in Charleston for calling him a liar.

—Quite a number of the natives of Cyprus were up before Trial Justice Meyers during the last week.

—Trial Justice Meyers held Court two days out of the last week. Quite a number of cases were disposed of.

—The Court House fence will soon be completed. It will add to the appearance of Orangeburg to a considerable extent.

—The County Commissioners had a lively session on Saturday last. The new bond of County Treasurer Greene was disapproved.

—Mr. Frank H. Green's official bond comes up before the County Commissioners again to day. Mr. Greene returned from the North last night.

—Mr. S. M. Wolfe has been appointed a deputy United States Marshal for this County. Mr. Wolfe will fill the position faithfully.

—We inadvertently omitted to state that Mr. V. D. Bowman spoke at Branchville at the meeting of which mention was made in our last issue.

—Our readers will forbear with us this week. The weather has been a degree or so too hot for a quill-driver to work steadily.

—An interesting Republican meeting was held at Bull Swamp in this County on the 20th instant. Speeches were made by the Clerk of Court, Mr. Geo. Boliver, and others.

—Dr. J. A. Kellar has requested us to state to the public that he is no longer a candidate for the Senate. The fight will now be between Hons J. L. Jamison and Rev. Rous.

—Mr. Herman Wahler's fame as a friend to the followers of Bacchus is spreading far and wide. His whistles are the worst enemy the Temperance cause has in this State, because—they are good.

—The ticket printed at the head of our editorial columns in our last issue occasioned a great deal of bitter comment. One thing there is that is sure, and that is, there are a leefle two many candidates in Orangeburg County for one ticket to hold them all.

—The County is dying for rain. Water, water, water is the cry Edisto River is lower than it has been since 1789. The little boys are able to cross it just below the bridge near this place, and when at high-water mark the channel is ten or twelve feet deep.

—The weather has been so intensely warm during the past week that the beautiful oak and elm trees that just a few days ago made such delicious shade in our Court House Square, are withered and parched to death. They are dead—that which was worth to the over-heated public hundreds of dollars.

—Horse racks are in order now. There are not enough of them in Orangeburg. Since the new fence has been built, those around the Court House Square are insufficient to accommodate all. We just mention this because convinced that our excellent Mayor and Aldermen, will see to it, that their friends from the Country shall be accommodated to a hitching place when they see fit to visit our Burg.

"An accident to the right arm of our foreman" is considered a good excuse for the suspension of a Mississippi paper for a week.
